Thanks for agreeing to be a referee for one of our new applicants!
Please help us to learn some more about her.

Grace College residents are a select group. They're committed to being in community with one another. They encourage and support one another in the many diverse activities in which they are involved—from study to sport; cultural activities to social events; through opportunities for spiritual nurture, community service, and personal development; in seeking to care for one another, the community around us, and the environment.
